

2018 Damascus Give-away
Rules (The Fine Print)

No one connected with Damascus or those involved in any way with this Give-away, or their families are eligible to win this 2018 Give-away, however we welcome their donations.

Tickets will not be limited; however we plan to cut off ticket distribution at 1,500 tickets.

Damascus will accept eligible donations until the time of the drawing.

The drawing will be held on April 20, 2019 at Dyersburg, Dyer County Dogwood Festival Peddles & Blooms & DC Recycles, which is scheduled to be at the Dyer County Fairgrounds.

The Winner will be notified by phone call.

For every $20 donation to Damascus one ticket will be placed in the chance to win the free Give-away.

The winner of the Give-away will be responsible for sales tax, transfer fees, income tax effect, and any other fees or taxes associated with the transfer of ownership. The winner will become fully responsible for the vehicle upon successful notice of winning, including any damage or liability that may occur.

No warranties accompany the prize.

Damascus is not liable for any casualty arising from this Give-away, including any claim to any defect or casualty of the vehicle being given away or any contest to the procedures associated with the Give-away.

Tickets not associated with a donation are available by mailing a request and including your name, address, and phone number, and a stamped return envelope addressed to yourself, to Damascus at PO Box 352, Dyersburg, TN 38025 and asking for a ticket to the 2018 Damascus Give-away. Limit one per person.

Damascus is a non-profit 501(c)3 corporation seeking to minister to men desiring to find a new life in JESUS CHRIST. Damascus appreciates your support and partnership. Thank you.
